Graduate School Mentorship Program

Undergraduate Student Mentee Application

About the GSMP

The Graduate School Mentorship Program (GSMP) provides opportunities for undergraduate students to work directly with graduate students in a meaningful mentoring relationship. The mission of the GSMP is to expose undergraduate students to the graduate experience as they make decisions about post-baccalaureate study and transition from undergraduate to graduate student status.

Mentee Requirements

- Attend and actively participate in all GSMP meetings:
 - Program Orientation – Early September
 - Workshop – November
 - Mid-Program Meeting – Late January
 - Service Project February
- Participate in service-learning project. The mentors and mentees will volunteer as a group at a community service event (date and location TBD).
- Meet in person with mentor for one to three hours per week.
- Complete periodic electronic surveys.
- Take advantage of shadowing opportunities provided by mentor
- Participate with mentor in one-to-one check in meeting with program staff

Please feel free to contact the Mentorship Program Coordinator, at gsmp@vcu.edu or (804) 827-4544 with questions.
